Policy on Out-of-Time Final Examinations

See Academic Concession: https://okanagan.calendar.ubc.ca/campus-wide-policies-and-regulations/academic-concession

Students will not be permitted to apply for out-of-time final examinations except under the following circumstances:

- representing the University, the province, or the country in a competition or performance;
- serving in the Canadian military;
- observing a cultural or religious rite;
- working to support oneself or one's family;
- having responsibility for the care of a family member;
- unforeseen events.

Religious observance may preclude attending classes or examinations at certain times. In accordance with UBC Policy, students who wish to be accommodated for cultural or religious observances must notify the Dean's office in writing at least two weeks in advance, and preferably earlier.

Students who have two exams scheduled at the same time, or three exams scheduled within a 27-hour (inclusive) period, should complete a request for out-of-time final examination form and submit it to the Dean's Office for processing.

Students who arrive late to a final exam and are not admitted, must report to the Dean's office immediately. Students who intend to apply for out-of-time final examinations for one of these reasons must submit a request to the Dean's Office. Requests should be submitted within 48 hours of the missed examination and must include acceptable documentation to support the request (i.e., a doctor's note that states simply that the patient was seen is unacceptable).

If approved by the Dean's office, rescheduling of the final examination is normally the responsibility of the instructor in consultation with the student; however, the Dean's office may arrange for the student to write the exam with another instructor. Whenever possible the rescheduled exam should be slated for a time after the regularly-scheduled examination.

Personal Information ("Information") provided on this form is collected pursuant to section 26 of the Freedom of Information & Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act"), R.S.B.C. 1996, c.165 for the purpose of processing your request for an out-of-time final examination. The Information will be used and shared within UBC in accordance with the Act. Any questions regarding the collection of the Information may be directed to the Faculty of Management at fom.bmgt@ubc.ca
